“ I don't know what to say. I had spoken to Homers mom not too long ago.

My son Daniel Vargas died last year in November. He was Homers friend from school and the neighborhood. I am so sad for the family. I know what it is like to loose a son. My prayers are with you and I know homer and daniel are safe in heaven with blaise and jason. I know they are around us. For in our hearts are memories of there profound love.

I am so sorry and pray that you find comfort in knowing that the pain from the loss does get better.

“ Soleda, I don't know if you remember me from BMC West maybe your last job. Remember you gave us your radio. I did not know that your son was Homer. I found out about this through my husband. I look it up and I found out that you were his mom. I am so sorry about your loss. He is in a better place now. He is watching over you and will protect you. Don't give up on life god took him from you for a reason. You have a whole lot of friends and family that need you. If you ever need anything you know where to find me. Tara also send you her condolences. Take care./
