“ Hunter and I were attached at the hip for most of our younger years. He was a bother, my family, and a best friend. We encouraged each other to be our best and also had the most fun nights out of my life. He was the life of any situation and if you met him once you never forgot him. He just had a way with people. His ruby red lips and conviction when he spoke about anything won people over. He was a true friend and loved his people so very hard. When I was younger in one of my first apartments, I would get scared to be there alone sometimes and he would always just drive 40 mins from his house to stay over so I wouldn't be afraid. He did those kind of things for the people he loved. I really haven't ever had a best friend like that in my life other than him.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss brother Reese. It hurts my heart to know how painful this is for you. I know that you will miss your son. It's hard to believe that he is gone. I'm praying for strength and wisdom for you, Beverly, Bryan, your grandchildren, and your family. I'm praying for Hunter's children and those he left behind. His family and friends. I'm very sad that this has happened. I wish you well brother. I love you. I know that someday this will pass. Stay strong, have faith and know that Hunter was blessed to have such a great father as you. Hunter Chase Hughes is in good hands with the Lord. I will miss him. He will not be forgotten. God Bless you and your family.

“ I met Hunter who I renamed Forrest when he was 14 and lived behind me in our old neighborhood. He was just a part of the family from then on. He will be sorely missed and he is forever loved. His kind and lively personality will live on in my memories and the many moments we had in this life. My heartfelt condolences to everyone who knew him. RIH Brother.
