“ As a little girl I always remember Mrs. Cupit's beautiful smile and loving heart every time we were at church. She had the most welcoming spirit and caring soul. My deepest condolence to Mr. Cupit and her family. I do rejoice in knowing that we will all see her again in Glory! I am so thankful that even though I had not seen her in more than 30 years her smile will always live in my heart.

“ Oh Mrs. C. The days at Calvary Baptist Church are such fond memories. The Choir trip we made with Bro. Jenkins, was a story in it self. You were the lady at the church that we could call on to answer any question about anything. You loved us as we are and never looked back. You and Mr. C. were second parents to all of the youth for years and we loved y'all for it more than y'all know. Now you, Mom and Dad can catch up on things that have been going on down here. Will be missed tremendously by all. Love you
