“ Our sympathies to your families upon your mom’s passing. I so enjoyed working with her in the cafeteria for 8 years. We both stopped workaroud the same time. Your dad even came up on special holidays and helped us. At that time we had over 200 students. Even Joel Hall got in on the fun times. I’ll always treasure those memories.

“ I knew Irene from church and we would talk at the different functions . I know that she was a member of the KJZT #85 Society for many years and was always helping with the group. Irene was always kind and I truly enjoyed visiting with her. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her and may she rest in peace.
