“ My deepest sympathy to Linda, Dallis, Donna and their families. Irene was a strong, beautiful person with a heart of gold. When I had surgery she cared for my little sister so my Mom could be with me at the hospital. When I was down she loved me enough to confront me on things that only harmed me. When I went to Aunt Edna's funeral her Mother she took me in under her wing as if I was one of her own. I will remember her beautiful smile, her giving heart and her love of life and family.

“ There are so many cherished memories to hold on to. May God give you the strength and comfort of knowing that she has been called home and rests in peace. Those who knew her were blessed to have her touch there lives. God's blessings to the two of you.
