“Willie and Tekla Sunderhuse were blessed when they sent their children in search of their life partners. They were proud of the spouses each brought back. Aunt Irene was no exception. I found some comfort after losing my mother by searching for poems and passages from other eulogies. This was one of the poems read at the Queen Mother's funeral back in 2002.

She is Gone
By Anonymous

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

*She will be greatly missed by both of us,
Steve and Anita*

“ Dear Denis and Family,
I will keep you and the family in my prayers. I know that Irene is now with our Lord Jesus. However, there will still be tears for she will be missed. There will also be joy as you remember the good times. We know that we have been blessed because she was in our lives.
Take care and God Bless.
