“ Alice - May God bless you with the strength and comfort to cope with your loss. I would like to share one special moment with you about "Uncle Jack" but to me they were all special moments. Those are what we have to remember him by and I will never forget how great of a man he was to his friends and his family. I know he was not my uncle, but as I got to know him at an older age; he did not mind it when I started calling him "Uncle Jack". Uncle Jack, I know "Boy" is missing you too. You meant the world to him. He respected you with all his heart and looked up to you as someone he wants to be like. No one will ever wear the Hat like you did Uncle Jack.
