

Jack Acosta

February 1, 1945 - May 23, 2015

You won't see him out front watering the lawn anymore - Dad's work here is done.

Jack Acosta slipped away May 23, 2015. His old heart was tired and he needed to rest.

Dad was born in Stamford, Texas on February 1, 1945. He was the youngest of eight brothers and sisters.

In 1967 he was drafted into the army and earned a Purple Heart in Vietnam.

Dad was proud of his military service but he was most proud of his family.

He married Rose Ann Rodriguez in 1969, a girl he first met in the fifth grade at Knox City Elementary School.

Together they had one son and two daughters. Five grandkids would follow - that's when Dad's title changed to Popo.

Jack Acosta loved to work on his yard, he loved the Dallas Cowboys and he loved to sneak off to the casinos.

Most of all he loved his family and we loved him.

Take a break Dad, you've earned it.

Mom says you loved her enough to last a lifetime.

Visitation will be held Wednesday, May 27, 2015 from 4:00 - 8:00 p.m. at Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Chapel, 3900 Terry Boulevard in Rosenberg.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 28, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at St.

Laurence Catholic Church, 3100 Sweetwater Boulevard in Sugar Land.
Interment will follow at Greenlawn Memorial Park in Rosenberg.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Jackie's classmates and friends from Knox City wish to convey our sympathy to Rose Ann and Jackie's children. He will be especially remembered and revered for his gentleness and great sense of humor. Please accept our condolences. We understand how much you will miss him, and we will, as well.G

understand how much you will miss him., and we will as well.

Jackie will be fondly remembered for his gentleness, his humor& - June 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LE

“ Jack gave so much of himself to family and friends. He made a point to stay in contact with my mom and they always had the best time talking about casinos, cooking and getting the best bargains. He treasured his family. God bless you Jack. We are so lucky to have had you in our lives.

Lisa Escobar - May 28, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ He made this world a better place.

Don Stewart - May 27, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ What a dedicated husband, father, and grandfather Popo this family is losing. May you find joy in your memories to help you through these difficult times. He loved you all very much and will always be with you and watching over you. Love you!

J.R. & Judy Bibb - May 27, 2015 at 12:00 AM

HB

“ RIP Jack! Prayers to the family.

Harvey Blasingim - May 27, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RE

“ Uncle Jack was a tribute to our family and he will be greatly missed. All of you will have special memories of his words and his actions and they will appear daily as all of you continue your journey . We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Much Love

Robert & Janie Esparza - May 27, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ Popo you are one of the greatest people in the world. I love you very much and I will miss passing by your house and seeing you work in the yard and me shouting Popo out the window. but most of all I will miss being silly with you. I love you give bogey a big hug for me. I love you, CAMI

Cami Crochet - May 26, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ Popo you are one of the greatest people in the world. I love you very much and I will miss passing by your house and seeing you work in the yard and me shouting Popo out the window. but most of all I will miss being silly with you. I love you give bogey a big hug for me. I love you, CAMI

Cami Crochet - May 26, 2015 at 12:00 AM

EC

“ What a great tribute to a great man who served his country and family so well. All of Gannett is thinking about you Jack. May you find peace and strength.

*Ellen Crooke
Gannett News Division*

Ellen Crooke - May 26, 2015 at 12:00 AM