

Jack Edwin Boepple, Sr.

April 10, 1930 - February 11, 2007

Visitation for Jack Edwin Boepple, Sr., 76, of Richmond, will be held from 5:00 P. M. until 9:00 P. M., Tuesday, February 13, 2007 at Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Chapel in Rosenberg.

A Rosary will be recited at 9:45 A. M., followed by a Funeral Mass at 10:00 A. M., on Friday, February 23, 2007 at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Needville with Father James Ramsey officiating. Interment will follow at Greenlawn Memorial Park in Rosenberg.

Jack was called home to be with his Savior on February 11, 2007. He will be missed by anyone who happened to know him. Until his retirement, Jack was a door greeter at Wal-Mart, both in Rosenberg and the Super Center in Richmond. If his friendly greeting didn't grab you, his ever-present smile would.

Prior to that Jack was an agent for Washington National Insurance. During his many years there, Jack became acquainted with more than half of the total population of Ft. Bend County at that time. Even twenty years later, he could still remember his clients, their children and even grandchildren. They remember his smile.

Before that, Jack developed his love for classic movies, by operating movie theaters in Ganado and Wharton. He developed a passion for “B” Westerns and the like. Jack had been an avid collector of these movies for years.

Jack Edwin Boepple, Sr. was born, April 10, 1930 to Fred Charles Sr. and Golda Mitchell Boepple. On April 12, 1955 he married Darlene Joyce Janecka. They had three children: Janice Marie, Jack Edwin Jr., and Michael Wayne. He passed away quietly on February 11, 2007 in Richmond, Texas after a brief illness.

Jack is preceded in death by his wife, Darlene Joyce Boepple; parents, Fred Charles Sr. and Golda Mitchell Boepple; and brother, James Patrick Boepple.

He is survived by: Daughter: Janice Marie Poppenhusen and husband, Robert; Sons: Jack Edwin Boepple, Jr.; Michael Wayne Boepple and wife, Michelle; Brothers: Fred Charles Boepple, Jr. and wife, Dawn, Mitch Boepple and wife, Molly; Sisters: Judy Liberda and husband, Carol, Jane Boepple Cliningsmith; Grandchildren Whitney and Haley Boepple, Travis and Rebecca Poppenhusen; along with other relatives and many friends.

A special thanks to all of the medical professionals who have helped Jack over the past six months. Your expertise made a difficult situation more bearable.

For Jack: For you a light shining in the wilderness was useless. If no one was there to see it, what use was it. You were at your best in a crowd. If they weren't smiling you gave them one. If there was a problem you would listen. There were many things you did not know. But showing you cared, when it really mattered wasn't one of them. We will miss your smile and that contagious laugh. But most of all we will miss you.

“ I just wanted to let you know I'm here for you and am praying for you. I'll miss your dad's smiling face - although I know not nearly as much as you will, of course. I just wanted you to know that he brought joy to everyone.

“ hi my name is gloria cantu ortiz, and i knew Jack through my parents, Andrew and Vicenta Cantu.

He was their insurance agent. As long as i can remember and until my parents passed away 10 yrs ago, i used to see him come to the house and converse with my parents, and of course collect the insurance payment.

He always treated my parents, and all of my family with dignity and respect, and his laugh and smile were one of a kind.

then, later after he retired, my children and I ran into him at Walmart, and lowe and behold he remembered who i was!

he said:"gloria are those your children? you are all grown up now and have your own children, how about that!"

it had been quite a while, and he still remembered the tomboy that used to hang out on the porch and scream for her parents when she saw him driving up the driveway.

he was truly a great human being, and we will miss him dearly.

God Bless Jack and you his family!

“ To Jack's Family:

As a Walmart frequent customer I have always enjoyed the "greeters". Jack was so sweet and always remembered me with a big smile. He will always have a warm spot in my heart for his loving ways. God Bless You and may the peace of our Lord be with you.

“ I had the opportunity to serve Jack through Eucharistic Ministry at Cambridge. He always lit of the room with his beautiful smile. You could tell he was genuinely interested in other residents by the way they responded to him. I could see Christ in him, and I only hope he saw the same in me.
Peace of the Lord be with Jack and you.

“ My condolences go out to all the family. I used to work with Jack at Wal-mart and he was always a pleasure to work with. We always went to the same place to get pedicures and he said that was something he enjoyed and we enjoyed him very much. He was a very sweet man. My Prayers will be with your family during your loss.

“ We have to agree with the Kuntz family remembering Jack's common reply in conversation... "Is that right?" That memory brought a smile to my face. Your family is in our prayers for comfort and peace from the Lord.

“ We have known Jack for many years as my Dad's Frank best friend. Jack was more like a family member to all of us. He was always cheerful and had a great story to share. He also enjoyed hearing stories from others and I can still hear him reply "Is that right". He will be greatly missed and never forgotten.

“ There are no words to express the loss of this sweet soul. But I think William Wordsworth may have said it best in his work " The Happy Warrior"

Who is the happy Warrior? Who is he that every man in arms should wish to be? - It is the generous Spirit, who, when brought Among the tasks of real life, hath wrought , Upon the plan that pleased his boyish thought: Whose high endeavors are an inward light , That makes the path before him always bright: Who, with a natural instinct to discern, What knowledge can perform, is diligent to learn; Abides by this resolve, and stops not there, But makes his moral being his prime care; Who, doomed to go in company with Pain, And Fear, and Bloodshed, miserable train! Turns his necessity to glorious gain; In face of these doth exercise a power Which is our human nature's highest dower; Controls them and subdues, transmutes, bereaves, Of their bad influence, and their good receives: By objects, which might force the soul to abate, Her feeling, rendered more compassionate; Is placable-because occasions rise, So often that demand such sacrifice; More skillful in self-knowledge, even more pure, As tempted more; more able to endure, As more exposed to suffering and distress; Thence also, more alive to tenderness. - Tis he whose law is reason; who depends Upon that law as on the best of friends; Whence, in a state where men are tempted still. To evil for a guard against worse ill, And what in quality or act is best, Doth seldom on a right foundation rest, He labors good on good to fix, and owes To virture every triumph that he knows:... Finds comfort in himself and in his cause; And, while the mortal mist is gathering, draws His breath in confidence of Heaven's applause: This is the happy Warrior; this is He That every Man in arms should wish to be.

“ You were always smiling and cheerful with everyone at all of the family gatherings. You lent an ear and shared a story with whomever happened to be nearby. That sweetness will be missed. May the love and prayers of so many friends help to comfort the family in this difficult time.

“ You were deeply loved and cared for by your kids, grandkids, your son and daughter-in-law. That made you a "rich" Man. Maybe that is why you were always smiling and so pleasant.... or maybe, because you were always so pleasant and smiling you caused people to deeply love and care for you. You will be greatly missed. Our hearts & prayers are with the family. Love, Mimi Collins
