“ Growing up with Jimmy, he was like a big brother to me. I only have good memories with him. He could make you laugh at the darn-est times. When things went wrong , working on trucks, tractors ,whatever' he would always make me laugh. He also got us in trouble with the nuns at Holy Rosary school and drinking the wine at church when we were altar boys. Don't get me wrong , he was good as gold' and would do anything for anyone . I Love him and he will always be in my heart❤️.David
