“ Whenever I think of Stan, his eyes are crinkled, gleaming in amusement...looking a bit like Santa.

He fiercely loved his family...and was quick to accept others into it. Anytime we were in town for a holiday meal, we always felt welcome and were properly entertained with his dynamic stories and humorous point of view. I always think of him when we begin another "weekend project" that requires multiple trips to Home Depot and multiple weekends to get it 90% finished...

As the son of immigrants with no other extended family in the country, it meant the world to Gabe - and me! - when he and Gale traveled to Fort Worth for our rehearsal dinner and wedding. Family is important, and I'm so sorry to lose another member.

I'm praying especially for Gale and Leonard and the grandkids...that God would soothe your grieving hearts and even give you some moments of unexpected joy as you remember things he said or did...

“ Working on the same team as Stan for just one year, I am most grateful that Stan was so generous of his time and help with questions I had relating to our assignment. Moreover, I am fortunate to have Stan as a friend and colleague.

Sincere condolences and prayers go out to Gale and Stan's entire family, in the hopes that you will find comfort in celebrating his new life, leaving you so many wonderful memories.

*Sincerely,
Vic Shanley*
