“ I went to WCJC with Cricket, and then later lived in the the same apartment complex in Houston. My roommate was from Bay City and good friends with Cricket and we would hang out. He was always the clown of the party and everyone loved him. My husband and I were just thinking about him the other day. I am so sorry for your loss. You were blessed to have a wonderful man in your life and I know you have many beautiful and happy memories. God Bless you All !
