“ Sandra,
You are such a dear, treasured friend. It saddens me to know that you are having to go through this. I remember advice you gave me years ago when I was struggling. You said, "it's God's plan and HE has already written your path through life." I remember that all the time and use it often in my day to day life. I can only hope now, that you will lean on the strong faith you have and your amazing sense of humor during this time. Please know that we are praying for you and your family. If there is anything you need, please don't hesitate to call. We love you so much!!

“ Dear Larry,

Ecclesiastes 3 states:

â€œ1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: 2 a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, 3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, 5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain, 6 a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, 7 a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, 8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. 9 What does the worker gain from his toil? 10 I have seen the burden God has laid on men.â€

I want to encourage you and your family right now; know this time in your lives was planned by God. It was not a surprise to him. Right now, God is not wringing his hands because he does not know what to do about the situation. He is still on his throne, and his perfect will is going to happen. He will bring you through this time, and he will be glorified in the entire situation.

Let the knowledge of Godâ€™s supreme control support you and your family. You can throw yourself on him because he is the same as he was when man was created, and tomorrow, he will be the same as he is today. He is and will be holy God: mighty, perfect, and worthy of all the praise of man.

â€œWhat does a worker gain from his toil? â€ This is the â€œburdenâ€ we have as humans; the burden of not gaining anything from our hard work. However, if we work for Christ and store our treasures in heaven, we will gain much. We will gain more than we can imagine; we will gain Christ! Focus your heart, soul, and mind on Jesus at this time.

Know the Townsend family cares for you; you are like a big brother to Nathan and me, and if there is anything we can do to be a greater blessing to you, let us know. We love you Larry!

“Sandra and children: It is hard to pick the right words to express my emotions in the lose of Buddy. It is such a shock. From what I have been told, he was an excellent college teacher and well respected by his students. This respect has to be earned from the students and not all teachers can say that. Also, he was a dedicated stepfather to Larry and Molly and a proud father to Diane. In the days ahead, if there is anything I can do for you, please contact me. Buddy will be missed by all. May God bless you in your continued walk through life. Always Larry

I don't have any words to express how devastated I am. I was hoping to have you around a lot longer so that you could see me grow up and finally become a true adult. I am so blessed to have had you as long as I did but I wanted more. I love you so much and know that you are in a better place but I wish that you were still here. I'm so happy that you got to see me finally graduate from college and I hope that I made you proud. I will miss you so much and miss our times together laughing and talking about music and movies.
