“ My dad was a handsome man, wasn't he? He knew it too. He regularly bragged about what great legs he had. I thought time was supposed to make losing him easier but it hasn't. I miss him every day. I miss him specifying that our orders were to go each time we went through a drive-thru. It never failed to make me laugh. I'd give everything I own to go through a drive-thru with him again. Even if it was his favorite, KFC(yuck!) Or, even better, to hear him call me “Little One” and hug me one more time. He was a good hugger. A wonderful person, teacher, and father. I was truly blessed.

“ Toodie & family - I am just now seeing the very sorrowful loss of your brother, James. - I have such fond memories of you & your family growing up with you as a good friend; all the times I would spend the night at your house when we were younger! Your brothers were fun! - May God bless you all!
