“Bobbie, Pat and I were saddened by the news of James' death. We will always treasure all the memories we had with him and the concerts we went to with you both. He was a true gentleman and we loved talking and visiting him. Words can't express all the sorrow we share and the sympathy we send to you and the family.

“All the memories of my childhood always included the Reese family. Bobbie was like my other Mom. We lived next door for so many years. Mr. Reese was the only person that every called me Suzy--i will miss that!! Over the years, the Reese's have always been there for important events in my life--I knew I would always see them and visit with them at both my Mom and Dad's funerals and at my brother's funerals. They were at both of my weddings and I always knew they were like family to me!! We even went to the same church and Cheryl was always my best friend all during our school years!! I do know without a doubt that Mom and Dad and Jim were at the gates of heaven when Mr. Reese arrived--they are having such a great time in Heaven!! We will see them all again someday!!
Love to you all.

“ *Cheryl,
Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family in this time of sorrow. Know that in your greatest need, God holds you tightest. Take comfort in knowing how much of an influence your father had on so many lives and in the fact that he now rest in the palms of his father's hands.*
