“ *Luke and Brandon,
I am so sorry for your loss. Your Dad was such a good person and loved you two very much.*

I just want to say that one of the few things I will always remember about your dad was the love for singing he had.

During the karaoke days he loved to sing songs by Hank Williams Jr. and David Alan Cole.

I know a lot of his friends will have many stories of him to tell. This is just one of many you will read and hear about.

Please keep in touch and remember you are loved and in my prayers.

*Sincerely,
Rosey*

“ Well.. where do I begin? My dad has been friends with the Warren brothers as long as I can remember and then some. I used to go to the house to play with Luke and Brandon growing up all the time. I was shocked to hear of this tragedy. My heart goes out to my dear old friend Luke and little brother Brandon. We're praying for you!

“ We will miss James dearly,always had a big smile and always carried a conversation when we saw each other at a shopping store.Always said great things about his boys,they were his life.I will always remember the wonderful times, praising all together in church to the great I am,Jesus Christ." Lord I know the you will comfort these beautiful boys that were dedicated to you, Luke and brandon ,keep them always in your care and that they will seek you and call out your name when they need you or just to praise you," In Jesus name I pray.
