Jamie is survived by his parents Linda Cunningham and David Mylet of Renfrew, Scotland, United Kingdom; wife, Darah Cunningham; children, Emma Cunningham, Connor Cunningham, Corinne Szymanski, Jace Butler; siblings, Alan Cunningham and Lindsay Mylet both of Renfrew, Scotland, United Kingdom.

Jamie was born on May 30, 1980 in Renfrew, Scotland. He graduated from Renfrew High School. He married Darah Duplechain Cunningham, his soulmate & best friend, in Houston, TX on his birthday, May 30, 2008. He was a devoted husband, and they spent every anniversary in the hill country of Fredericksburg, TX. Jamie and Darah were blessed to have a blended family with four beautiful children. His children remember him as a kind, loving and gentle father who encouraged them to pursue their goals and taught them many things about life.

Jamie was an accomplished Carpenter and often displayed his fine craftsmanship remodeling homes and refinishing furniture. He was a dedicated and generous individual who loved his friends and family and who was passionate about the Celtic Football Club, cooking, gardening, hunting, and fishing. Jamie was witty, the life of the party, and a true Scottish gentleman. He was an active member of the Creekside Christian Fellowship Church, which his neighbors Brian and Diane Davidson introduced him to.

A memorial service is scheduled for December 11, 2015 at 10:00 A.M. at Creekside Christian Fellowship Church with a reception to follow at the same location at 16628 Hwy 36 Needville, TX 77461. “Jamie, you were my first love and a wonderful father to our sweet children. We will miss you and your crazy weirdness. I have so many memories of you saying the strangest things and all of us just laughing like crazy people. We had ups and downs, but you will forever hold a special place in my heart. I hope you can rest easy knowing that I will do my best to continue to raise our kids to be the amazing people they are shaping up to be already, and to make sure they have you and all of your family always in their lives.”

“ My dearest brother in law, you will forever be in my heart and on my mind. Gone way too soon, but I guess what they say is true - only the good die young. I will miss our family get togethers where we stay up all night on the porch shooting the breeze and playing washers. Will miss your accent, your cooking, not knowing which Jamie people are talking to when they call our name, and your smirky grin. You were family to me, a brother I always wanted, an amazing uncle and friend. Rest in peace big guy, until we meet again. Love you
