“ Ms. Turner was an amazing woman, instrumental in shaping my life in so many ways.

She taught me to sing, play piano, and perform onstage for others. She inspired me to study music in college, and eventually, become an elementary school teacher. A woman of great faith- she was so proud when I later went to work in ministry.

I will never forget how she would smile from ear to ear and beam at us kids, telling everyone we were her "Stars of Tomorrow." How I miss her. She was so very special.

Her child-like spirit, playfulness, love, talent, "old-school" wisdom, determination, grit, and sparkle will stay with me forever.

She will be missed. She was one-of-a-kind. I am grateful for her life and that I was blessed to know her.

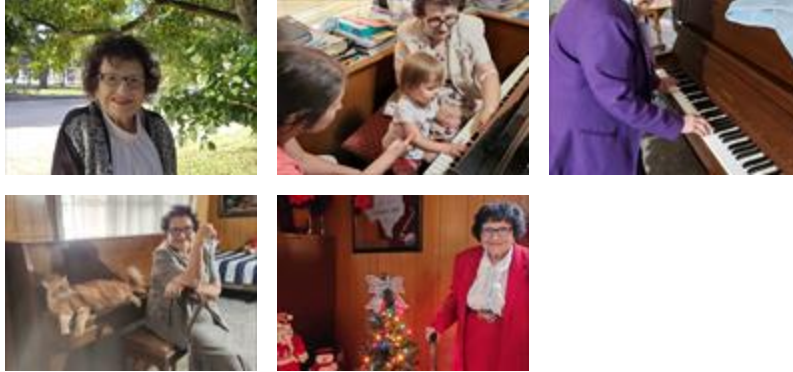

She is now rejoicing and singing (probably opera) with Jesus, at peace, and in Eternity beyond.

Love you forever, Ms. Turner!

“ We are sad to hear that Jane is no longer here on Earth, but we know where she is. We hope God gives her a special piano because when we get up there, we want to hear her play again. She served as the church pianist for Second Baptist Rosenberg for fifty plus years. We visited her at home two months ago, and she was teaching piano to a young student. Jane sang beautifully, and blessed our church with vocals. Her faithfulness is an inspiration, and we will miss her. Reverend Paul and Gay N Lewis

I forgot to add that Jane played all those years for us without compensation. She loved sharing her talent with us, and she considered it her ministry. She also taught children in Sunday School. Her influence will continue through the generations. Her work ethic was beautiful to behold. Even though ill, she worked. Jane left a major mark on our lives. Thank you Lord, for Jane.

“ Mrs. Turner was my music teacher when I attended Holy Rosary in the mid to late 90s-early 2000s. She had a passion for music I think many of us were too young to understand, but it showed whether she was playing her piano or leading us in a song with her tambourine. I think we all loved days she let us play the chime bells. We loved her candy jar full of skittles. I'm very sorry for the loss her family is experiencing, but know she left an impression on many. Over the last 20 years I've thought of her often in passing through downtown Rosenberg, and in many moments when nostalgia sets in. May she rest peacefully and enjoy never ending music.

“ Mrs Turner was my piano teacher over 50 years ago. She was responsible for our “talent” showcase on the Don Mahoney and Jenna Claire Show on channel 39 on Saturday nights. She show cased many of her students on that show. I still remember evenings spent with her learning to play the piano. First at her home and later at the H & M Music store in a tiny closet She was always so calm and willing to “do it again “! Our Sympathy to her family.
