

Janet Lee Damiani

May 14, 1929 - May 2, 2015

Janet Lee Damiani, of Houston, Texas, passed peacefully from this world, Saturday, May 2, 2015. She was born May 14, 1929, in Mason City, Iowa. After completing nursing school in Des Moines, Iowa, she married Olindo Joseph Damiani and they moved to Houston, Texas where they started a family. She quickly befriended many and enjoyed a long and full life as a Texan. As a registered nurse, she worked at several area hospitals, including Bellaire Hospital, Rosewood Hospital and Houston Methodist. After her children were grown, Jan ventured into business, purchasing several hotel gift shops. She also started a postcard business, with son David. The postcard business grew and was very successful with Jandee Cards being sold at both Airports, NASA, the Galleria, the Astrodome and numerous hotels and hospital gift shops. After retirement, she enjoyed a busy schedule of activities with her many friends, including the Junquers antique hunters, Investment Club, and Book Club. She was always active at her beloved Church of the Epiphany, where she served for many years on the Alter Guild. She also served as communion bread coordinator, and volunteered for many other duties at the church. She enjoyed the Tuesday noon bible study at the church, and of course, the lunches after.

Jan is survived by her sister, Phyllis Theobald; sons, David Damiani and wife Christine; Daniel Damiani and wife Sandy; daughter, Sandra Jordan and husband David; grandchildren, Lee, Luke and Lindsey Damiani, Zachary and Jessica Jordan, and great grandson, Noah Damiani.

A celebration of Jan's life will be held Thursday, May 7th at the Episcopal Church of Epiphany, 9600 S. Gessner, Houston TX 77071. Visitation will be held from 10:30 a.m. until service time at 11:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Episcopal Church of Epiphany, ECHOS, or charity of your choice.

“ Oh what a delightful and joyful person was my Aunt Janet! The mere mention of her name brings smiles. When we all would get together laughs and giggles were sure to accompany! She will be terribly missed in this life. I look forward to Heaven even more today!
