Janice Margaret Smith Rosenberger went home to be with her Lord and Savior on August 7th, 2023. Born on January 11, 1939, to Jodie Nathalie Fulton Smith and William Lee Smith, Janice moved several times as her father followed his chemical engineering career until her family settled in Texas City.

It was there she met the love of her life, Kenneth Jean Rosenberger. They were married on January 12, 1959, and celebrated their 64th anniversary in January 2023.

Janice and Ken raised four children together, with Janice taking care of their children and actively supporting her children in dance, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, football and baseball. Janice later achieved her Certified Professional Secretary award and worked as an administrative assistant for Brown & Root for many years.

Janice was active in First Baptist Church, Rosenberg. She and Kenneth joined the church on February 17, 1998. Janice also taught Bible Study Fellowship and loved teaching and sharing her faith with other women. She sewed exquisitely. Ken and Janice enjoyed traveling to Australia, England, Italy, European river cruise, New York City, and Hawaii. Grammy loved hosting tea parties, sewing clothes for dolls, and enjoying time with her beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ Carl and I will always treasure our trip with Janice to London, especially the "attic" room we reserved for her at a B and B in Dover, and running out of gas with Carl on the M4. Janice chatted away with the police officer who stopped to help, and invited him to come visit Texas! I think he actually took down all the information! But probably her highlight was seeing the crown jewels!
