“ Dear Lisa & Michael,

Words cannot express how much my heart aches for you both right now. My most sincere and heart felt sympathys to you both in this your greatest time of need. I will pray for your son as well as you both. I will pray that God makes my strength your own and in time heals your hearts. I will pray that God keeps your little angel in his arms until you are all together again. May God Bless your entire family.

“ Lisa,

I know what you are going through and it is going to be tough but you MUST be strong for your family and yourself. December will be 3 yrs since my little Jackie passed away. Though you will never forget your son, time will heal you. Know that our children, Jared and Jackie, are God's little angels and he is taking care of them. May God Bless you and give you peace.
