

Jason Robert Pearce

April 15, 1982 - August 7, 2015

Jason Robert Pearce, 33, passed away Friday, August 7, 2015 in Houston. He was born April 15, 1982 in Houston to Donald Glen Pearce and Alice Naylor Pearce. Jason was a member of Colony Creek Community Church in Missouri City and worked as a landscaper.

Survivors include his parents, Donald Glen Pearce and Alice Naylor Pearce, paternal grandparents, Glen and Opal Pearce, brother, Jeremiah Glen Pearce and wife Nancy, 2 nephews, Caleb Joshua Pearce, Noah Jeremiah Pearce, 2 nieces, Grace Constance Pearce, Elizabeth Marie Pearce and a host of other loving family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Alva Wilson Naylor and Katherine Green Naylor and his younger brother, Joshua David Pearce.

Jason was a very compassionate and loving person to friends, family and acquaintances. He was witty and loved to make people laugh. He was hard working and liked working with his hands. He liked installing paver patios and building things out of wood and took pride when the results matched his expectations. He excelled in golf and was on the Elkins High School golf team in 1998-2000. After high school, he began playing pocket billiards and was an excellent pool player widely known and respected throughout the Houston pool community. He had his struggles as a young adult, but he was really making some positive changes this year and was very hopeful about the future. We don't understand why he was taken from his loved ones so young in life, but we thank God for having had Jason in our lives. He will be greatly missed and fondly remembered.

“ Life is hard, but it is also very loving. I'll always always love Jason, as he was already my brother. If I could see him today, I would tell him Thank you! In a world where everything is right or wrong, Jason knew that there was right inside of everyone, even when everyone would only see wrong. That was his heart, that was how he was built inside. And as well knowing how beautiful my sister's heart is inside, I think that's what she loved about him so much. I remember she would tell me, He makes her a better person. They both have the same strength inside that carries others people's doubts into the right thought. Which is love, and though part of that love has passed on far too soon, I am so thankful that I was able to have my very own doubts carried into the right side of my own heart through them. Thank you Jason! Rest in peace dear brother! You are forever with us! ~Michelle, Bradyn and Madison~

“ Don, Alice, and family....

Like many others, there just aren't words to express the shock, the sadness, and the overwhelming desire to somehow magically shelter you all from this loss. Obviously, that can't happen....but it surely doesn't take away the wish that we could.

What I remember about Jason is that he liked to eat! Growing up with three brothers and having two boys of my own, it always made me smile on home bible study nights when Jason would make sure to be there just long enough to make sure he got a good-sized portion of the "pot luck" dinner! Makes me smile even now.

We love you. We know your depth of faith. We know your strength. We know that your are also each other's rock of support. Know that we continue to pray for comfort and peace for you all as you go through this particular journey.

“ Dear Alice, Don & Family,
We are truly at a loss for words & deeply saddened by Jasons untimely passing. It is unbelievable that he is gone, taken so soon! We loved Jason. He was the son we never had..hoping that one day he & Amber would marry. His life was just beginning. Jason was so funny, he touched so many with his smile & laughter. He was a very kind, caring & loving young man that would help you if you needed a hand. He had a Giant Heart of Gold! He truly loved you Alice, Don & Jeremy, & he loved my Amber.. She always said "Jason, always brought out the best in her" & I believe that Jason brought out the best in everyone that he crossed paths with.
He has touched our lives & will be greatly missed!!!
We hope that you & your family will be able to find solace in his passing & know that he is truly safe now!
May you rest in peace, sweet Jason. YOU Will NEVER Be Forgotten.. We will miss you greatly & always love you!

“ Dear Alice, Don, and Jeremy,

I wish I had the most comforting and profound words to help understand life's events. Despite the distance between my life and yours, I'm greatly saddened. I had a connection with Jason because of our similar hobbies, interests, independence, and self-reliance so I'm heartbroken at Jason's passing. I hope you all find strength in each other and your families to celebrate Jason's life, and perhaps there is a way for heavy hearts to raise our spirits.

With grief and sadness,

“ My Dear Alice, Don, & Jeremy,
There are no words that I have that are adequate to express my deep sadness in the loss of our dear Jason! My mind is in denial, and my heart is broken, I cannot fathom that Jason is gone. I know too that you are numb and have a much harder time believing that this is true!
Without our Faith in a just God we would all be ready to throw in the towel, but we do have our faith and we know that God has a purpose for calling Jason home this way. We don't like it and it's ok to let God know we don't like it, because we miss Jason and we don't want him to go. God knows your pain and promises not to give you more than you can bear, tho it feels like it right know!
Know that I love you all and will always be here for you. Col.3:16 ,
Prov3:5-6
