“ Elizabeth and Family: The news of Jay's passing brought back some very dear memories of past association in the Lord's work with Jay both in Illinois and Tennessee. I will never forget the first time I met both of you while preaching in a gospel meeting at Galesburg, Illinois. I will never forget your devoted work in the church there as well as in Tennessee. May God through His word comfort you during your time of grief. Jay was a fine man and always serve as a tremendous example for younger Christians to emulate.
