

Jean Ann (Plowman) Stewart

February 22, 1951 - September 9, 2017

Jean Ann Stewart, 66, returned to her heavenly home on September 9, 2017 after a brave battle with Lewy Body Dementia. Her devotion and love for her family as well as her firm belief in God supported her in her struggle and ultimately gave her peace. Jean Ann had amazing and wonderful love for her God, her family, and her church.

Jean Ann was reunited in heaven with her parents, Willard “Bill” and Ella Mae Plowman, as well as her husband of 46 years, David Stewart. She touched so many lives and brightened hearts with her laughter and smile. Jean Ann was the best Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Children’s Choir Coordinator, Handbell Director, and Sanctuary Choir member a person could ask for.

Jean Ann is survived by her two daughters Jennifer and Rhonda; her grandchildren Erika, Bailey, and Taylor; and her son-in-law Quinton Freeman. She is also survived by her sister Pamela McClendon; her brother Mark Plowman his wife Janice Plowman; and her nephew Matthew Plowman; her brother-in-law Robert “Bob” Stewart and William “Bill” Stewart and his wife Travis Stewart as well as their three children Alan, Amanda “Mandy”, and David.

Jean Ann will be truly missed on earth but has been made whole again and can once again walk, talk, and sing praises to God!
