“ What can I say that hasn't been said about Jeff. It's difficult not hearing from him everyday. He was truly my best friend. Nothing will replace the void.

Jeff never met a stranger. Always in good humor and ready to help out anyone in need. He truly touched everyone he ever met. Very talented carpenter that could build anything. Loved to fish. Most of all, loved his kids. I miss you and love you with all my heart. Thank you everyone for the kind words. He will never be forgotten.

“ Rick & Family,
We were so very sorry to hear about Jeff. He was such a great guy. We really enjoyed the time we got to spend with him during our home construction, he made sure everything turned out just right, he was such a dedicated worker, and father. I remember how excited and proud he was when he showed us the pictures right after his youngest daughter was born. Our prayers are with all of you.

“ There are so many wonderful things to say about Jeff, his laugh, his smile, his garden, his hand made Margarita Machine and most of all the pride he took in his family. I will always remember him as my Cabana Boy hahaha he was character, that is for sure and will miss sitting in the back yard shooting the Red Rider BB Gun with him and hearing him complain about how the grass wouldn't grow because we were always sitting on it. My son Nathan Jeff nicknamed him Chicken Nugget age 6 will also miss Jeff very much, as Jeff was his biggest hero. He thought Jeff was the coolest thing around besides SpiderMan. Jeff will be truly missed but his memory will always remain in our hearts. We love you Jeff and will think of you often. Mistie, I love you and the kids. You know I'm always here for you.

“ That unforgettable smile, joking personality and caring way is also how I remember Jeff. Jeff was my hero growing up-like a big brother. I was the “little girl” next door. If it was giving me a ride to school just to make me smile or “trying” to teach me to ride his most prized skate board or taking me for a ride in his new car or just walking over to say HI to us. I have many memories that mean the world to me. I’m so thankful I had the chance to grow up knowing Jeff. I am praying for your entire family. He will never be forgotten and his memories will last forever in our hearts.
Justin, I am so sorry. If you ever need anything I’m just a phone call away.

“ Who could forget the big smile Jeff always had on his face. When you talked to him and he had that smile on his face you could not help but to smile right back at him. Words can’t express how much Jeff will be missed. To the Herring family just know that God does have a plan for this we may not be able to see it now, but he does. The family will be in our prayers and thoughts. May god wrap his loving arms around the Herring family so they may have peace.

“ We want to Thank his parents for having brought such a wonderful person into the world and sharing him with all of us. And his wife and daughters made his life whole. But apparently God needed a good man like him in heaven, with him. He was truly a gift. We'll all miss him so very much. All of our love goes with his family, Cousin Rhy'donna & Daniel Vallejo

“ I grew up with Jeff and will always consider him a dear friend. I was not able to make it to the service today since we are still on vacation. I have used this time in CO to reflect on Jeff and all the memories of the fun times in Munday. I am so thankful to know Jeff was so happy and was so loved. Please know that you are all in my prayers and will continue to be daily.

“ For so many of us from Munday, Jeff was part of our extended family. Whether we grew up with him or watched him grow, and whether we stayed in touch or not, his infectious smile and uplifting attitude had an everlasting effect. As always, when we think of Jeff, that smile will be the beacon that carries our fond memories forward.

For the family: When someone as young and vibrant as Jeff is taken, it may seem impossible to face the void that is left. You can do it - one day at a time. When you are reaching for understanding, if the question of "why Jeff?" prevails, remember that this was no one's fault. It was an accident. Don't fall victim to blame or guilt. Know that you will find the strength and the grace, one day at a time, to move forward in your lives, as Jeff would want you to. And, remember that you will always have friends to lean on.

Even though our words may offer very little comfort during this time, you have the opportunity to see just how many people care about you and how many lives Jeff touched in such a positive way. Love the people that Jeff loved. Embrace the blessings and carry them forward.

“ Dear Herring Family,

May the Lord's Peace, Favor and Blessing be upon each of you during this time of the loss of your precious Jeff. In Matthew 5:4 Jesus said, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

Please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ What I remember most about Jeff was his easy-going ways, his contagious personality and effortless sense of humor.

It's always hard to know what to say in a situation like this. I hope that you find some comfort in knowing that because of those traits, he was able to make a positive impression on I'm sure everyone he came in contact with. He was indeed one of the "good guys". Please know that you are all in my prayers. I was just crushed when Becky told me about it. Take care...

“ We did not have the pleasure of knowing Jeff personally, but from the words we've read this evening, it is clear to us that Jeff led a beautiful life that will be a part of you, forever. Please know our thoughts and prayers will be with all of you, Jeff's family, and our relatives Kristen and Matt James.

May the peace and grace of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit sustain each of you this evening and as you journey on, and may God's love and the love of family be with you.
