“ It is very sad to see Jeff has passed away at a far too young age. During our time in Assen, the Netherlands, Jeff was a great friend and we shared many things. We worked together, house shared (I still blame him for setting fire to the kitchen). We travelled all over the north Netherlands with our darts team and with Assen Pioneers Rugby club. He was a great hooker! We travelled to the UK to pick up his beloved Honda CBR motorbike. He was so excited. That excitement was surpassed going back to Doncaster to marry Christine and then again when his sons were born. Jeff, you were a big part of my young adult life and will be sorely missed by all. RIP.

Jeff was a real family man. He was a devoted husband and he and Chris made a strong and wonderful team. Everything that he did was for her and the three boys, of whom he was exceedingly proud. I am sure that it meant a great deal to him to see both Daniel and Thomas get married. Although I was no longer part of the family, he still called me 'sis'. Jeff was a quiet, unassuming, kind and gentle man. Sleep well bro.

“ I only met Jeff a few times but he was a true gentleman. I loved how he adopted Texas so well! All of you are in my prayers.
