“ To the family. It is still hard to believe Jennifer is gone. When I was working on my teachers license in Kentucky she really made all the difference in the world plus was very funny to talk to. I miss her every time I change countries because it would have been nice to have her endorsement. I hope the sadness of her passing does pass for you. It is hard to believe tomorrow is a year anniversary Craig Cothren, now teaching in Mexico but probably going to China in September of this year.

“ Ms. Glove will always be remembered as a sweet, kindhearted, and great woman of faith and integrity to me and my daughter Blessing. She always offered encouraging words to her even when she was the one who needed encouraging. She always put her students needs above her own. Blessing always told me that because of her she could never dwell on her disabilities, but be thankful for her abilities. She was a teacher that I always looked forward to working with each day at Navarro. We would like to thank God and her family for sharing her with us. Her beautiful life was a life well lived and a lesson well learned.

“ Mrs. Glover was the best teacher a girl could ever have. She was always smiling, and when she wasn't we would get her to. I loved Mrs. Glover, and I will never forget her. She was and still is the best teacher ever. To her family, I'm sorry for your loss, but Mrs. Glover will always live in my heart.

“ Mrs. Glover was the best teacher a student could ever have. She always made my days. I always made hers when she was down also. I really wish I would've visited her this year. Love you Mrs.
Glover. You were and still are the best.

“ Jennifer was such a special member to our teaching community in Shelby County, Kentucky. She was a wonderful Math teacher and model to her students. She will always be my favorite teaching sidekick and buddy...she is going to be missed deeply...particularly her smile that kept everyone positive.

“ Jennifer was a beautiful person inside and out and will be missed by so many. Its so sad that she had to leave so early but she is no longer in pain. My prayers are with the family today as today will be one of the most difficult days that they will ever deal with. Jennifer is now an angel in heaven with our father and no longer in pain. See you on the other side Jennifer. We love you. Billy and Lora

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Glover Family. I truly enjoyed teaching with Jen at Navarro Middle School. She was my friend, a fellow Christian and co-worker. Jen always had a smile on her face no matter the situation. I know she walked in the spirit of God. It was always a blessing to be in her present. We will truly miss her.

“ My sincerest and deepest sympathies go out to the Glover Family. I am Jennifer's 3rd cousin from Denver. I had the fortunate experience to spend some time with her when she came here to visit my grandpa Paul Hinton. My brother, Jennifer and I had some fun while she was here. I am hoping she will meet up with my brother again now that she is in heaven. She fought a very courageous battle and she did it with such grace. She is an inspiration to all the lives she has touched. May God grant you peace and comfort in the days ahead. Much love to you all.

“ Jennifer always lit up the room with her smile and charisma. She never met a stranger. An inspiration not only to her beloved students but also to anybody that was fortunate enough to cross paths with her. She always told me that she was a blessed woman because she had a family that loved her deeply and supported her with unconditional love. Jennifer spoke freely about her faith and her deep love for our Lord. She demonstrated that Christ-like love to everyone. Well done, Jennifer. It has been a blessing for me as well to cross paths with you. You will be missed!
