“ I can still remember the day my sister Ronnie told me she was 16 and pregnant with Jennifer she was so scared to be having a child so young ,but when she had her I had never seen my sister look at anything or anyone with such love as she did that baby. Then when Ronnie died even though Jennifer was so very young I saw how she devoted herself to her little brother and Jimmy and his amazing family raised those kids to be amazing human beings. When Jennifer was expecting Callista I had never seen such true devotion then those two have had for each other ,Jennifer was amazing mother and grandmother and for her life to be cut so short is heartbreaking but I know in my heart that Ronnie was there waiting on her to cross over to heaven and now she is there with all of those gone before her. Fly to the Angel's honey until we meet again.....
Love you always Aunt Donna
