“ Jim, It was good to talk with you on Saturday. But such a sad occasion that brought us together. The images of her that stick with me are her cheerfulness, her pleasure in being with people, the devotion she had for her parents and family. Such wonderful warmth and caring. All this I remember, and will remember. Somewhere in all these difficult days may you find comfort and solace knowing how many like, love and respect you both.

“ I was so sorry to learn of Jere's passing. I worked with her in the late 1960's at Johnston Testers, in fact we rode to work together. She was a very kind person. May God bless her family.
