Tribute Wall

TM

“ I give my sincere condolences to the families and friends. Jerry was greatly loved and will be missed. The best description of Jehovah God is that he is love. It talks of this at 2 Corinthians 13:11 where it says, "Finally, brothers, continue to rejoice, to be readjusted, to be comforted, to think in agreement, to live peaceably, and the God of love and of peace will be with you." This love is the reason why we can be confident that Jehovah will remember those in the memorial tombs in the near future and we will be reunited with our loved ones. Please take comfort in that knowledge.

“ I am truly sorry and shocked because I had no idea that Jerry was even sick. I would have started a prayer chain if I only knew. He was close to my age and it has been years since I have seen him. My prayers go out to his family and friends. I will miss him in my soul even though I was not there in body. God Bless you all and send his love to comfort you all in this time of sorrow. “ Jerry always called me Cesske. His gentle way and his humor are the things I will remember most. I had many wonderful times with Jerry on the golf course. The Oilfield has lost one of its own and is very sad to see an old friend leave. Jerry believed in God so I know he is home, not suffering anymore. Thanks for the memories Jerry, we will miss you.

“ I can't say anything that hasn't already been said, I can't pray any prayer that hasn't already been prayed but I can tell you how I feel —our loss is Heaven's gain, my loss is the same as the loss of a brother or sister. Even though we have been separated by time and distance but never by the love that will always remain in my heart for Jerry and your family. May God bless you and keep you in these trying times.
