“ Jo and Michelle

Even though we didn't get to spend much time together as we grew older, Jessie was still the person I looked up to. He had such a hard life and I admired the way he always managed to come thru with his head held high. He was a hero to me and I loved him very much. He managed to put up with us in spite of ourselves, LOL. We are a strange bunch and god knows nobody else could put up with us.

“ Jo and Michelle, I know this is an exceptionally hard time for all of us right now but God is there watching and protecting us all. I will miss Jesse so much - even though we never saw each other - he was my brother and held and still holds a very special place in my heart. I love you both and I am here for you anytime.

“ Jo & Michelle I know there is no words that comfort you right now, but God is with you. When you are alone and feel a soft touch on your shoulder that is God telling you he will help you get through this. Jesse was my heart as you and Michelle are. My prayers are with you always. If you need me I'm there.
