“ You will always will be that little boy that always won't to go with me (really not me but Ethan) when we got ready to leave. You would get so upset if your mom and dad would tell you no but we always got our way. I had so much fun stopping at the gas stations letting yall get out picking out y'all's snacks and drinks for our little road trip back to my house from my dad's y'all's paw paw. I had so much fun listening to both of y'all talking and giggling like two little girls in the back set. It would break my heart when we would come to your home and we had to leave and you couldn't come back with me you would be so upset I bet I cry in till we got out of Houston. I love when you told me I was your favorite aunt in Florida how I could have such and open conversation with you. I will never forget you giving me our saying Holy ShIT. And when you hug you hug. I'm going miss them. I no Ethan going miss them because he told me so he said who going give me those big hugs and turn me around like I was the girl lol. He in joy riding around with you. He got to feel like a teenager. You was only here for short time but you touched so many hearts. I was blessed to meet some of your friends and here some of the best stories. I love all the birthday party you and Ethan had yall were our babies. Please watch over Ethan he needs it. Love you Jessie you better greet me when it's my time Holy shit aunt Shannon made it lol xoxo
