“ We are saddened to learn of Jim's death. He graduated from "dear old Sugar Land High" a few years ahead of us. We still hear and tell stories of his shenanigans as a teenager. In reading his obituary, it is obvious he grew up to be a fine man. Our love and prayers for comfort for all who loved him. BJ & Jon Pltts

“ From the desk of HL Stowell: There are so many memories I can't choose just one, We met in Highschool and had houses down the street from each as other as Adults. It always made me laugh when he drove his Blue Sportscar down the street and played Dixie on the horn. I will miss him very much.

“ I will truly miss Jim he was a wonderful father and close friend of my Dad's. I grew up a few houses down from the Olive family and spent a great deal of time with Debbie. Jim always brightened my Dad every time I saw him and Mary Ann. The Olive family was truly loved by myself and my family. We are so sorry to see him go but very glad to know he is in heaven.
