“ We were out of town on vacation and when we came back, found out that Jimmy had died. We have great memories of the two of you being our next door neighbors in the early years of our marriage. We like this saying, "Keep the mourning short and the memories long." You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Ann,

Just heard of Jimmie's passing away. Please accept our sincere condolences for you and your family.

I always felt Jim was so sincere and easy going. Never heard him say anything negative about anyone. I think he was one of the "good guys". I will miss talking with him.

“ May God bless you and surround you with his peace in this time of sadness. He was always kind to me and I'll always remember him saying, "be careful in that thing, it's squirrely as hell," just before I drove off in that Mustang.
