I'm very sorry for your loss. I know you will miss him greatly. I went to high school with Moon and even though he was a couple years older I had a class with him. We sat in the back of the class and laughed all year long. He was one of the funniest guys I ever met. Great sense of humor. So happy to see he found Jesus!

I love hearing stories like this. My dad was one funny guy, glad he passed that sense of humor down to all of us. Thank you for your kind words.
