“ *Mr. & Mrs. Parr and family,
So sorry for your great loss. Jimmy will be greatly missed by all. I will always remember him as a hard working, fun loving person who liked to play jokes on everyone. Jimmy never met a stranger, he would always greet someone as if he had known them all his life. He was never scared of work, he always wanted to help you no matter what you were doing. He was a great friend, always kept me company when I was shoeing a horse weather it was his, Rocky's or Mr. Parr's. Jimmy was a special person and will be greatly missed.*

An old saying that fits him well,

The riderless horse is not to remind us of a loss, but to promise that we will never forget.

Jimmy, may the rain always be at your feet, the wind at your back, the sun shine upon your face, and God hold you in his hand til we all meet again.

“ Lloyd and Susie, I'm so sorry to hear about Jimmy. I enjoyed many days of entertainment when he and his dad helped with my house. They could really get after each other.
