“Joan was the most loving and beloved person I’ve ever known. She was loved by everyone she met. I know everyone felt she was their best friend because that’s the way she treated everyone. I was lucky to be one of those best friends. I always enjoyed visiting with her. Since both our maiden names were Rogers, we were sure we were related. I will miss her terribly as I know Eddie and JJ will, too. I’m just grateful I knew her.

“We shall always remember joining Eddie and Joan on an Alaskan cruise. We invited ourselves to go with them, and they said OK! And then also our weekend together at Pandera, NM, where Joan taught us Sudoku.
