“ William, Carolyn and Janet, you may not remember us but we were neighbors on Ariel St. and our son Kelly and John were the best of buddies, John Focke included. Your Mother was a dear sweet lady and I have thought about all of you at times through the years. We were very saddened when we heard of John's passing; I remember what a cute little boy he was. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this sad and difficult time. God bless all of you.

“ My first memory on hearing the news ...Christmas Eve at The Huebner's House on Ariel Street in Houston - and the family inviting me to be a part of their Christmas Eve celebration when I was home alone that particular Christmas.

How fitting the Christmas Eve celebrations were mentioned in Mrs. Huebner's celebration of her life.

*Rest In Peace and May God Bless,
John Focke*
