“ *Joe was a wonderful father husband grandfather and great grandfather.
He loved all you and missed Charlene and was ready to join her and be an angel with her.
He lived a full life and loved to help others in both churches.
He loved fishing and hunting with grandkids and taught great grandkids to hunt and fish too.
Sorry for your loss Diana Jeanne and Joe Jr.
He will be missed dearly by all of you but know he is with your Mom now.*

“ Diana, Jeanne, & JoJo - So sorry to hear of your Dad passing. I remember when we would get together at my parents house or yours when ya'll lived on FM 359. We had such a great time together. But your parents are back together again with the Lord and visiting with our Dad I'm sure just waiting to see all of us again someday. Praying for you and your families.

“ I remember when y'all lived on, I believe, Damon Street in Richmond and Mr. Anderson was making homemade wine and it exploded all over the back room. All the times our families got together and had fun.
