“ Joe Hanzelka played senior softball in the Harris County Senior Softball League and on the Crossfire tournament team that began around 2014 with Joe being one of the founding players. He continued to play for the highly successful Crossfire as it evolved over the years, winning many regional tournaments and in 2018 won a SSUSA World Masters Championship title

Joe was a key player every year on the Crossfire team which once again competed in the prestigious annual SSUSA tournament in September 2023, finishing third.

Joe was a beloved teammate and a loyal friend who was at the heart of the Crossfire teams success for nearly a decade.

Joe was a quiet leader that was highly respected for his tenacity, gritty play and endurance but more importantly for his generosity, camaraderie and commitment the team spirit. We were extremely fortunate to have Joe as a teammate.

Joe was well known for his defensive play. His strong throwing arm and his signature diving catches in the outfield were awe inspiring. He was well known for his skills by his teammates and fellow competitors in both league and tournament play.

Joe's calm demeanor, wry wit and practical view were foundational to the Crossfire team and crucial to its success as his infectious spirit was a pervasive influence on team chemistry. While many players passed through Crossfire over the years, Joe was a constant presence at the core of the team where he set an admirable example for old and new players alike.

On behalf of the Crossfire team, we've shared a short video highlighting Joe during the successful 2023 season culminating in the annual trip to Las Vegas to compete in the SSUSA World Championship tournament. We hope you enjoy this tiny snippet of Joe the player. What we can never hope to show is the limitless depth for the universal love, respect and admiration we all carry for Joe...our friend, teammate and quiet leader. We will dearly miss him.

“ Joe was the kindest and gentle person I’ve ever known. My sidekick in the outfield for the last couple of years on Crossfire was always smiling and laughing. It was a pleasure and honor to have played with him and known him. As much as a good ball player he was, he was even a better person, and it was my pleasure to have him as friend! I miss you Joe, you can’t be replaced! See on God’s diamond one day! Love you my brother!!

“ We lost a good soul and much too early. Joe was a fun, kind guy and wonderful father as evidenced by his exceptional daughter Sydney. Gone too soon but never forgotten.
