“ Dear Matt,

*For you and your Mom my sweet boy:
Funeral Blues*

*Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone.
Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone.
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.
Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead, scribbling on the sky the message: He is dead.*

Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves, let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves,

*He was my north, my south, my east and west.
My working week and my Sunday rest,
My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song; I thought that love would last forever: I was wrong.*

*The stars are not wanted now: put out every one,
Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun,
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the woods;
For nothing now can ever come to any good.*

W.H. Auden

*My own words are inadequate, Matt.
I love you very much.*
