*John,
You are a beautiful man that will be truly missed. You were always a gentle soul from the time I met you in high school, through our college years, to when I married your sister and became part of your family. Your big heart always shined through. Words cannot express our sadness and grief but know that your memory and spirit are with us all. Rest well until we see you again. God bless, Felix*

John,

He is a wonderful person and the best roommate at St Mary's university Dormitory. He is a persistent student and a selfless person. He is a good tennis teacher and he is very diplomatic. It is most unfortunate that I never had the chance to play our last game before he left us.

My condolences to the Labay family.

“JOHN, I was thinking about you yesterday. You taught me how to drive when I was getting ready for my driver's license. You were always so patient and thoughtful. We miss you my beloved brother. Every day you are missed. We love you very much. Thank you for every single second of your life you gave us. Love you bro. We will play tennis again one day. We will rock out. You brother Pat

“ Just thinking about you, my coaching brother! Just watching the Longhorns and one of the announcers stated a catchphrase you used many, many times when one of our athletes did well “confidence builder, coach, confidence builder!” This definitely brought a smile to us as we reminisced your friendship. Love and prayers to you and your family. Lacy Wolf

“ John was my first teaching partner and always so kind to the kids. I remember when he had the kids bring in pumpkins to do a pumpkin math project of estimating and then actually counting the seeds inside their pumpkins. He decided to help them all carve jack-o-lantern faces in their pumpkins instead. Only to find out we weren't supposed to recognize anything related to Halloween at school. The next day he showed up with new, uncarved pumpkins for all the kids. John was a genuine friend. Tracie Rothe

“ John loved teaching math, and he was great at it. I remember stacks of papers he would grade at the kitchen table, staying up all night to finish. He was generous with his time and always helped those who needed it the most. He had a big beautiful heart and I miss his smiling face and sense of humor.

“ My friendship with John began when I met his sister Joan at IWHS, she soon introduced me to her family and John and I became good friends. We were the same age and spent so much time talking, laughing, going to dances at IWHS and CCHS, football games and the three of us went on a trip to South Padre and had a blast! He was like a brother to me for our high school years and we shared so many good times. Time went by and we grew up, moved away, got married, had families and I truly regret that we that we lost touch. He was so thoughtful, caring and so much fun to be around. I will always cherish the memories of John, Joan and the entire Labay family. Bless you all and may he rest in peace.

“ Darn Lefties. Always enjoyed playing tennis with John. Not at all surprised to see his High School Tennis picture in his tribute video nor the ping-pong table in the pictures. A Class "A" player and a Class "A" person. Quiet gentleman with incredible character. Glad to have shared your court. RIP
