“ My brother John (Bubba).was a man who loved to see the world. He has seen so many places, has done so many things in his life. The last pass year or two all he wanted to do was get to know his family all over again.. So he set off to doing that.. So off he went . He went to see family in Louisiana spent time with me and my kids and my brother John Dale and his family, along with cousins aunts and uncles. Then went to Houston to get to know old childhood friends and family. . He loved going play Golf and if he washed his dog dang truck of his one more time. I think the paint would be gone. And with the yard. He was so how can say it. he was just so anal about it. But he loved doing the yard.. And he just love me cooking for him.. He would alway say he didn't want to eat. But I would turn around and he had a fork eating and telling me he's not hungry.. Yea cause he just eat it out the skillet. But I want everone to know. My brother was a little bet of a ass hole. But he loved people and was the happiest person and lived his life the way he wanted. Down to the last. Rest in Peace my brother Bubba.. I will always love you and miss you..

I am still am at a loss for words. Who would have known that when Oscar and I went to visit him on Friday that it would be our last! We are so grateful that we had an opportunity to reunite with him these past couple of years. We had a wonderful time with him reminiscing and laughing at old times. God Bless you and your lovely family Bubba Meaux!
