“ I was so saddened to hear of John's passing. I worked with John the 4 years he helped out at Firetron. He was a wonderful, caring man with a wry sense of humor. The world is a little darker of a place without him here. I will keep all of you in my prayers as you mourn his loss. Know that he is now whole in heaven. My deepest condolences, Wendy Eatmon

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry I am not there; I did not die. By Mary Elizabeth Frye
