“ *My sincere sympathy to your family. My daughter graduated from A&M in 2005. She was killed in a car accident 4 weeks before graduation. The loss is unbearable at times, but with God you will make it through. I know your pain and I am praying for your family. Sincerely,
Terry Bell*

“ Dear Karen, Joe, & Anthony,

Our hearts are broken with your sad news. Even though time has put space between Trey and Joe, I know that they still kept in touch with each other through texting. We still thought of him often and would keep up with him through Trey. We have so many fond memories of him growing up and the many times he spent here. The world is definitely a much darker and sadder place without Joe. I always knew that he would one day come out of his shell. He was such a remarkable young man and we were very fortunate to have him as one of our son's friends and part of our lives. Joe Muller wanted us to pass on to you that he did try to fly in for the funeral, but the bad weather canceled his flight. He was devastated and wanted you to know he was thinking of you. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. If there is anything you need, just let us know.

*God's Blessings,
Nancy and Lynn Gros*

“ Dear Joe, Karen & Anthony,
We are deeply saddened by the news of Joe's passing. Although no words of sympathy can take away your sorrow, may memories of your love one give you strength to meet tomorrow.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in your time of grief.
May the love of the good Lord, family and friends get you through this sad and difficult time.
Our deepest sympathy,
The Hein Family

“ Dear Joe, Karen & Anthony,
I was deeply saddened to hear about Joe's accident. I can't even begin to imagine the pain and loss you are feeling. I am praying for God's comfort and His peace as you try to understand why. In times like these I am always comforted by Psalms 139, especially vs 16. I am on my knees in prayer for all of you.
With love, Julie

“ Words can never express the sorrow I feel for the Dimare family. There is nothing more devastating than losing a son/brother to an unexpected and unforeseen circumstance. May love and hope fill your hearts with strength and peace in this time of sadness and may God and time guide you through the pain and bring you comfort. God Bless You!
