“ I'm am truly sorry for the loss of Joseph. I remember like yesterday when I was in school with him in 6th grade. He was so funny. In 6th grade my cousin and I went to meet him and his friend at the movies and we came in the theatre. Joseph and his friend thought it would be funny to put popcorn on the floor so when we passed him in the Isle my cousin and I were slipping and sliding because of the butter oil. Boys will be boys but I look back then and think that was pretty hilarious. To Joseph Martin- everyone will miss you and now your in a peaceful place with your loved ones and no more worries or pain just pure happiness in heaven. You'll be a guardian angel now looking down and taking care of your loved ones. You'll be missed Joseph

“ Prayers in a Bottle
I'm sending you this bottle as a symbol of how much I care.
This note is all your eyes can see, but its not all I in there.

For this bottle is symbolic, it appears to be filled with air.
Yet, every time you remove the cork, you release another prayer.

You see, I filled it just for you with prayers to bring you Peace. I asked the Lord to care for you and help your heartache cease.

These prayers do not expire.
You can use them throughout the years. Just remove the cork and free them whenever you feel the tears.

“ Joey was a special, kind young man. My friendship with him was brief but valued. I will always remember his casual smile and soft spoken manner. He was taken from this world far to soon. May he rest in peace now.
