“ Wishing you all - Donna, Sheryl, Janet, and your families' peace and comfort. I will always have so many fond memories of Uncle Joe and Aunt Barbara - many visits and patio conversations. Especially taking my Mom and Dad to visit in Richmond one summer, and my visit to San Jose - where we ventured to San Francisco. Seeing Alcatraz, the pier and seals, visiting Ghirardelli Square, and Uncle Joe letting me drive his BMW down Lombard Street. I was treated like royalty by Uncle Joe and Aunt Barb. Our many discussions about my job/work, and building me a computer when I lived in Louisiana, and helping me fix it and understand how and why it broke. Always so grateful for the great conversation, never ending generosity, and the sound advice always given by both Uncle Joe and Aunt Barbara. Both so kind, welcoming, very generous, and wonderful – a true example of how family should be.

“ May God comfort you today and through
Although I never knew personally, I came to know him through the heart of his daughter Janet. Although there is grief for those who knew him, he is rejoicing in Heaven with our Heavenly. Father.
