“ Mr. Pat was a good friend to my dad, Bill Sulak.
I used to babysit his oldest when we lived on 4th St. I felt honored to have that job.
Good memories of his beautiful family.

Also, a good friend to my husband, Gene Karasek later in life.
They spent time among poker and dominoe players, good food and good company at Buckshots.

Much love and heartfelt prayers to the Gubbels family.

Sincerely,
Barbara Sulak Karasek

“ Pat was a friend for well over 60 years. I always found him to be a loving, caring and personable individual who placed the needs of others ahead of him. Over the years, Pat and I stayed in touch and he served as the conduit to our childhood. He knew how to live life and loved his hunting, fishing and shooting. Martha and I convey our most deepest condolences to the Gubbles family and may they forever cherish the wonderful memories he left behind. May Pat live in eternal, everlasting peace where we will someday join him. Sam and Martha Osuna
