“ Dear Aunt Christine, Ronald and Linda, Cletus and Rexanne, Donna and Mike, Sheila and Wayne - Amanda, Kaela, Adam, Lauren, Eric and Matthew. We are keeping you all in our prayers. What a precious memory we all have in the way he touched our lives.

Prayer for the death of my Husband/Father/Father-in-law/Grandfather

O most merciful Jesus; I beseech Thee by the agony of the most Sacred Heart, and by the sorrows of your Immaculate Mother, take my precious Husband/Father/Father-in-law/Grandfather into your arms, wash him clean with your precious blood; bring him to that special place in heaven you have just for him, and Sweet Merciful Jesus hug him for me; tell him how much I love him and how grateful I am for all that he has done for me; Most of all Sweet Jesus that he taught me how to love you; thank you for all the beautiful memories I will forever cherish in my heart. Amen.

Help me heal of this sorrowful time, let your precious healing blood fall upon me, and make the beautiful memory of my Husband/Father/Father-in-law/Grandfather a courageous energy of love that I can share with others. Comfort me Sweet Jesus; I miss him so; Thank you Sweet Jesus; please send your Immaculate Mother Mary to help me today; Amen.

Eternal rest grant to my precious Husband/Father/Father-in-law/Grandfather.

O Lord; May perpetual light shine upon him; Amen.

“ Chris and family. I just read and learned of this. I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you all. I have had you all on my mind lately. You all were the first people we met when we moved here. Always a smile on his face and so sweet. I remember him loving to be in his yard and tinkering with something. You all hold a special place in our hearts, you came and brought us a loaf of your homemade bread to welcome us. That does not happen anymore these days. I will be in touch. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love, Randy & Cindy Carter
