Julius was born June 25, 1935 in Richmond, Texas to Stanley and Mary Cegielski Nowak. He was a devoted long-term member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus Ft. Bend Council 2801. He truly enjoyed working on any project outdoors and making the trek to his ranch to tend to his cattle and special friend "Lucky", a calf he spent many a cold lonely night spoon feeding. Some might even say he enjoyed just a little bit of time at the craps table. However, spending quality time with his family and friends is what he cherished most. He passed away peacefully Saturday, January 30, 2010 with his family by his side at his home in Rosenberg.

Julius is preceded in death by his parents, Stanley and Mary Nowak; brothers, Ike Selvester Nowak and Zygmund Zeke Nowak; and by his sister, Esther Joswiak.

Julius is survived by his wife of 50 years, Georgianna Nowak; son, Stanton Nowak and wife, Deidra; grandchildren, Wryn Marie Nowak and Alexis Morgan Nowak of Sugar Land; along with numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Pallbearers will include Leroy Joswiak, Charles Joswiak, Daniel Nowak, Harold Nowak, Mark Nowak, Elliott Nowak and Brian Nowak.

Memorial donations may be made in Julius' name to Holy Rosary Catholic School, 1419 Allen, Rosenberg, Texas 77471.

“ Stanton and family, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Connie was two hours late at MDA receiving her chemo, so I was unable to attend the Rosary. Connie sends her sympathy to your mom and has spoken to Janell.
